So I decided to be optimistic about the whole thing and bring you inspirational items - and for those of you not on social media I'm reposting some funny jokes. You just HAVE TO HAVE A SENSE OF HUMOR!! Be safe and Stay Healthy! We will survive this!!!

FOR INSPIRATION:

- Carnival Cruise line told Trump, “We can match those big Navy hospital ships with some fully staffed cruise ships.”
- GM & Ford said, “Hold our cars, watch this; we can make ventilators where we were making cars by next week.”
- Construction companies said, “Here are some masks for the medical staff & doctors.”
- Restaurants & schools said, “We’ve got kitchens & staff; we can feed the kids.”
- NHL & NBA players are writing checks to pay the arena staff during postponed seasons.
- Churches are holding online services & taking care of their members & community.
- Women & children are making homemade masks & handing out snacks to truckers.
- Breweries are making sanitizer out of the left-over ingredients.
- We thought we couldn’t live without baseball, hockey, & NASCAR, or going to beaches, restaurants, or a bar.. Instead, we’re ordering take-out to help keep businesses alive.

What the virus didn’t count on was America saying,

“Hold my beer, watch this.”

The Japanese Admiral Yamoto said in the middle of the Pacific in 1941:

“I think we have awakened a sleeping giant.”
